NOTE.

Few of the Reports have title-pages, and many not even head-lines. In such cases I have made extracts from the letters of transmission which seemed to explain the subject of which it treated. The arrangement is chronological, the date appended to the letter to Congress being the guide.

Many of the Treasury Circulars were, during the first two years after the organization of the Department, issued in MS. It has seemed best, however, to include them in this list, merely noting the fact.
